

RTC TENNISTOERNOOI

Waar blijft de tijd! We denken alweer na over ons derde RTC -tennistoernooi.

Na twee succesvolle tennisavonden in januari 1997 en 1998 hebben we weer een datum gepland voor het nieuwe jaar.

Op 16 januari 1999 hopen we weer vele tennisliefhebbers te begroeten op de tennisbaan in Neuenhaus.

Niet alleen fietsende RTC-leden, maar ook hun aanhang is van harte welkom.

In het volgende nummer van Wielcontact kun je meer hierover lezen.

Noteer alvast de datum in je agenda:

zaterdag 16 januari 1999.

Wij rekenen op jullie komst!

René Evers
Alice Engbers

± 100 km and to Hite ± 140 km.

- b. In Natural Bridges National Monument or in Hite, load the bikes and by car to Hanksville. Swimming in Lake Powell near Hite, weather permitting.
- c. Spend the night in Hanksville, at a private campground behind a restaurant (Red Rock Campground; 45 sites; tel. 801/5423235 ?)

Day 8

- a. From Hanksville via SR24 by bike to Capitol Reef National Park (± 65 km)
- b. Stay at Fruita Campground (public; 71 sites; tel. 801/425 3791).
- c. In the afternoon explore the park, etc.

Day 9

- a. From Capitol Reef via SR24 and SR 12 (Boulder) by bike to Escalante (± 90 km). Load bikes here and drive on to Bryce Canyon.
- b. Stay at Ruby's Inn Campground (private; 200 sites; tel. 801/834-5341).
- c. In the afternoon go walking in Bryce Canyon.

Day 10

- a. From Bryce Canyon via SR12, SR89 and SR143 by bike to Cedar Breaks National Monument (± 85 km)
- b. Spend the night at the Cedar Breaks Campground (public; 30 sites; tel. 801/586-9451).

Day 11

- a. By bike via SR14 to Long Valley Junction, then via SR89 to Mount Carmel Junction and next via SR9 to Zion National Park. (NB. discuss beforehand with park keepers if the cyclists are allowed to ride to the park through the tunnel escorted by cars). Distance ± 100 km.
- b. Spend the night at Watchman Campground (public; 228 sites; tel. 801/772-33256).